

CAUTION

It has come to our notice that fraudsters are creating and using identity of Webel Technology Limited (WTL) like its websites, letterheads, mail ids of the organisation and official employee ids from social media platforms etc. to create fake job offer or misleading information about employment opportunities either in WTL or various Government of West Bengal offices / entities. Through these fraudulent practices they are attempting to dupe common public by promising job offers for their personal gain. WTL has already initiated necessary actions against such activities as detected from time to time as per the law of the land

In the interest of common public it is hereby warned that WTL's employment notification appear only in its official website: www.webeltechnology.co.in and simultaneously is published in widely circulated newspapers, and the employment process conducted as per the government rules, strictly in transparent manner and selection is purely based on merit of the candidates.

Prospective job aspirants are advised to be extremely vigilant and exercise abundant caution while applying for any job opportunities with WTL and do so only through the official website as no other platform has been authorised to carry out such process on behalf of WTL. Any person falling prey to such unscrupulous rackets of middlemen and fraudsters promising jobs etc. shall be at their own risk and WTL shall not be responsible for resolution of such misdeeds.

Be Vigilant & Stay Safe
